FROM THE PASTOR

When I was growing up, I remember my brothers and sisters coming home from Palm Sunday Mass and weaving the blessed palms into simple braids.

We would then put them all over the house: behind holy pictures, tucked into crucifixes in our rooms, and even hanging over mirrors and pictures. There were eleven of us (including Mom and Dad) so we had lots to place in the house. We were reminded of Holy Week whenever we looked at those drying palms throughout the year. Eventually, they would be taken to the parish a few weeks before Ash Wednesday where they were burned and used as the ashes that were placed upon our heads to start the Season of Lent. Beautiful, simple traditions and ones which we should hand on to our children and grandchildren. Passing on the Faith is not only about teaching the doctrines of our Faith but also by making the Faith part of our everyday family life. Daily prayers as a family, grace before meals, sacred art in our homes (whatever happened to crucifixes and pictures of the saints in our houses?), May Crowning of dandelions for the Blessed Mother, and blessed palms catching our eye throughout our homes. The Faith becomes real in these simple ways. And it all begins so simply. Where will you put the palm you receive today?

Road to Kindness

As we reflect on the beautiful meaning of Palm Sunday and Jesus's journey during Holy Week, let us ask a question: What have you done this Lenten Season to demonstrate your Kindness, your caring and your love? If you have been following and performing our 40 Days of Lenten Kindness Program, you have had many opportunities to demonstrate your Kindness, caring and your love. In Pope Francis's Message for Lent, he said that each year during Lent:

“We are reminded that ‘goodness, together with love, justice, and solidarity, are not achieved once and for all; they have to be realized each day.’ ”

Let us begin Holy Week by doing good and by thinking about what Kindness offering we can bring to someone in need or to someone that needs reassurance. Our Lenten Kindness Program had five acts of prayer - let's intensify our prayers and let's share our Kindness and love with anyone that needs it. We have seven days until Easter Sunday, let's make each one special and show your Kindness each day! During this Holy Week, let's all get inspired and follow God's Way – “The Road to Kindness!”

CENTENNIAL PROJECT

Today we celebrate Palm Sunday. Where do we go from here? His triumphant entry belies the torture awaiting Him as the Passover Sacrifice. From adulation to abandonment in five days...from euphoria to excruciating pain in just five days... from banquet to burial in just five days. Isaiah (53:7-10) portends His fate:

“Though he was harshly treated, he submitted and opened not his mouth; like a lamb led to the slaughter or a sheep before the shearers, he was silent and opened not his mouth. Oppressed and condemned, he was taken away, and who would have thought any more of his destiny? When he was cut off from the land of the living, and smitten for the sin of his people, a grave was assigned him among the wicked and a burial place with evildoers, though he had done no wrong nor spoken any falsehood. But the LORD was pleased to crush him in infirmity.

If he gives his life as an offering for sin, he shall see his descendants in a long life, and the will of the LORD shall be accomplished through him.”

The point of the prophet’s humiliating vision of the Suffering Servant can be found in verse 10. He died that we might live. It was His life’s purpose.

Evangelical Baptist Pastor Rick Warren of the Saddleback Mega Church (15 locations in California alone.) has sold more than 50 million copies of his bestseller, The Purpose Driven Life. For over two decades it has achieved pop culture status but its core concepts are timeless. It is structured very similarly to the contemplative thinking of the saints and mystics of the Church—the Ignatian exercises, St. John of the Cross, St. Theresa of Avila, or Thomas Merton. They call for prayer and reflection on a daily basis. They appreciate the words of Psalms 46:10: “Be still and know that I am God.” Let us be mindful this Holy Week of our personal relationship with God. Let us reawaken our connection with Him to guide us in our daily lives. Lest we think for a moment that we are lost just listen to the pleas of the famous ascetic monk:

“My Lord God,

I have no idea where I am going. I do not see the road ahead of me. I cannot know for certain where it will end. nor do I really know myself, and the fact that I think I am following your will does not mean that I am actually doing so. But I believe that the desire to please you does in fact please you. And I hope I have that desire in all that I am doing. I hope that I will never do anything apart from that desire. And I know that if I do this you will lead me by the right road, though I may know nothing about it. Therefore, I will I trust you always though I may seem to be lost and in the shadow of death. I will not fear, for you are ever with me, and you will never leave me to face my perils alone.”

-Thomas Merton

May you and your family have a blessed Holy Week and experience the renewal it brings.
