This Tuesday we celebrate the Fourth of July, our Independence Day. It is a day to give thanks for the many blessings that our country affords us. In so many places in the world where the Christian Faith is being actively persecuted, we should be so grateful that we can practice our Faith openly. The ability to worship in our churches is not a privilege we should ever take for granted. We proudly call ourselves Americans but even more proudly as Christian. Of course, freedom is not free. It has come at the cost of blood poured out and lives sacrificially given. It is not always guaranteed. We must diligently guard our freedoms and high on that list of freedoms must be the freedom of religion. May the United States of America always be a land of economic and personal opportunity but may it also always give everyone the opportunity to call upon his or her God openly and without fear of reprisals or persecution. God bless America!

Father Al
