PARISH MISSION STATEMENT

We, the Eucharistic Community of St. Joan of Arc Parish, by the grace of God and through our participation in His Word, the Church's sacraments, and prayer, seek our eternal salvation.

We live out the doctrines and traditions of our Faith in communion with the holy, catholic, and apostolic Church, established by Our Lord Jesus Christ.

With courage, we follow the example of our patron saint and invoke her intercession as we strive to know God, love God, and serve God which moves us to actively promote and live the Gospel of Jesus Christ in the midst of our every day life.

Gratitude and Congratulations:

- ◆ Congrats to Colin Malpass and Brogan Sheehan from Saint Joan of Arc School for coming in first (Colin) and third (Brogan) in the Diocesan Faith Bee. Colin represented our parish and Brogan represented Mary, Mother of the Church in Mount Joy, his parish, but both are students at our wonderful school. Thanks to all who teach the Catholic Faith up on Sandhill Road!
- ◆ Special thanks to Mr. Chad Reid and the Bishop McDevitt Chorus who sang so beautifully at the 9:30 AM Mass last weekend. Their youthful voices filled our church with songs of praise on the Third Sunday of Easter. Thanks to Mike Davis for making this annual event happen.
- ◆ Thanks and congratulations to all who have contributed to the Diocesan Annual Campaign (DAC) so far. As of this past week, we have raised over $122,000 toward our goal of $299,000. We still have a long way to go (we were at $129,000 at this time last year), but I am so grateful for all of our faithful parishioners who support our parish financially and to all the new givers who help us meet our assessment to the diocese. It really does go to a good cause! Let's meet our goal. If you haven't given yet, do so as soon as possible. It is always stressful to me when it seems like we will not make our goal and we have to take out of savings to make up the difference. (You do know that there are some stresses in this job of pastor, don't you!)
- ◆ Congratulations to all of our children who will receive First Holy Communion next weekend and thanks to the parents and guardians who are passing down the Catholic Faith to the children in their charge. What a great gift to our children!

Masthead photo: A young friar prepares for transitus, the Franciscan tradition of celebrating the entrance of their patron saint into heaven. In 2026, the feast will take on special significance, as Pope Leo has declared a special jubilee year recognizing eight centuries of Francis of Assisi's profound influence on the Church.

CALLED BY NAME

'THEY SAW SOMETHING IN ME THAT I COULDN'T SEE IN MYSELF'

“When I first became Vocation Director, I discovered something remarkable,” said Fr. Jordan Dosch, a priest of the Diocese of Bismarck. “I was looking through our archives and discovered an old ‘Called by Name’ list from about fifteen years earlier.” The list was from a campaign during which the bishop asked people to suggest young men who might make good priests. “As I looked at this long list of hundreds of young men, I saw my own name.”

“What’s amazing to me is that when my name was submitted, I was in junior high, and wasn’t even thinking about the priesthood—I barely even understood what it was. But someone saw something in me that I couldn’t yet see in myself.”

As Fr. Dosch examined the list, he saw more names he recognized. “I checked closely, and almost all of our young priests were on that list,” he said. “And some names were on the list ten times, which is a pretty good clue!”

Fr. Dosch says lay people have an important role to play in calling forth priestly vocations. “Every young Catholic guy has to struggle at some point with whether God may be calling him,” he said. “So when you see a devout young man and ask, ‘Have you ever considered the priesthood?’ it might confirm something that is already stirring in his heart.”

Fr. Jordan Dosch is currently studying canon law in Rome. He is pictured here with two deacons at their ordination in St. Peter's Basilica.

The Romance of Religious Life

Many women say, “I could never be a nun. I want a guy to sweep me off my feet. I want walks on the beach, candlelight dinners, and warm embraces.” And yet there are thousands of religious sisters who are head-over-heels in love with Jesus Christ, who relish being His bride, who will do anything to please Him, and who are too romantic to choose any other kind of life!

A TRADITION FOR MOTHERS

At a priest's ordination, the bishop anoints his hands with sacred chrism and wipes them with a cloth that in older rites was called a maniturgium. Following an ancient and beautiful tradition, a priest may give this fragrant, oil-soaked cloth to his mother after his first Mass. She carefully preserves the cloth, then at her burial, her hands are tied together as in prayer by the maniturgium as a sign that she has offered her son to God and the Church.

AN INDISPENSABLE VOCATION

WHY WE NEED BROTHERS

With today's shortage of priests, one might assume that any man entering a religious community would naturally go on to be ordained. Historically, however, this has never been the case. Religious life—marked by the vows of poverty, chastity, and obedience—has always been recognized as a vocation in its own right, distinct from Holy Orders.

Religious brothers play a unique and essential role in the Church. Free from the demands of sacramental ministry, they are often able to devote themselves fully to works requiring long-term presence and deep personal engagement. For example, the Brotherhood of Hope, a community of all brothers, focuses on campus ministry in secular universities.

In contemplative communities such as the Cistercians, monk-brothers live in seclusion and austerity, centered on prayer and labor. Through this hidden fidelity, they bear powerful witness that God alone deserves our complete devotion because, in the end, our common vocation is union with Him in heaven.

Religious brotherhood is a vocation that deserves renewed attention by the faithful and serious consideration from young men discerning God's call.

PRAYER FOR PRIESTS

By Saint Thérèse of Lisieux

O Jesus, I pray for Your faithful and fervent priests; for Your unfaithful and tepid priests; for Your priests laboring at home or abroad in distant mission fields; for Your tempted priests; for Your lonely and desolate priest; for Your young priests; for Your dying priests; for the souls of Your priests in Purgatory.

But above all, I recommend to You the priests dearest to me: the priest who baptized me; the priests who absolved me from my sins; the priests at whose Masses I assisted and who gave me Your Body and Blood in Holy Communion; the priests who taught and instructed me; all the priests to whom I am indebted in any other way.

O Jesus, keep them all close to Your heart, and bless them abundantly in time and in eternity. Amen

Vocation Summer Camps

Vocations-themed summer camps—often run by priests and seminarians—are a staple in dioceses across the country. They offer a mix of prayer, friendship, and fun... and, occasionally, a lifelong calling. When telling their vocation stories, quite a few priests will tell you: it all started at camp!

Visit Bishop McDevitt High School on Thursday, April 30, for the Spring Open House! Meet with staff and teachers, tour classrooms, and learn about clubs, activities, and athletic programs. Registration is required.

Also, please remember to bring an item or monetary donation for the Italian Basket that the CCW donates to the Festival Basket Raffle. This will be our last meeting until September.

Road to Kindness

We hear it everywhere - "Live in the moment," "Be present," "Live for today." It's a message that surrounds us in articles, videos, and conversations. And yet, how often do we truly live that way? So much of our time is spent looking ahead, the next vacation, the next event, the next season of life. We plan for what's coming, while today quietly passes us by. But what about today? Are you taking time to enjoy this day? Are you grateful for the simple gift of another breath? Have you hugged your children and told them you love them - today? Each day is a gift that will not come again. Life moves quickly. What matters most are the moments we choose to truly live. Cherish the life God has given you. Be grateful for the people in your life and walk each day with intention, love, and kindness! That is what it means to follow God's Way - The Road to Kindness.

Knights of Columbus Flower Sale 2026
