

Religious of St. Joan of Arc Parish

In 1919, Bishop Philip R. McDevitt invited the Daughters of Our Lady of Mercy to come to the diocese in 1922 and take charge of St. Ann's School in Steelton, PA. Mother M. Bridget Carew, the Superior, together with Sister M. Dionisia, Sister M. Benedict and Sister M. Emilia were the pioneers in Hershey. The names of the Sisters appear in these lists in the order of their first assignment to Hershey. Many of the same Sisters returned time and time again to teach.
